Solid Waste Enterprises Continues To Cause Headaches For County Commission

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, January 8, at the courthouse in Elba and heard Landfill Manager Buck Tindol report that he is continuing to have trouble with Solid Waste Enterprises.

Mr. Tindol told the commission that he recently told Mr. Frank Moore, co-owner of Solid Waste Enterprises, that the garbage dumpers at the landfill could be placed on landfill property. Moore reportedly told Mr. Tindol that Solid Waste Enterprises had sole control over the dumpers, and they could not be moved. Mr. Tindol explained to Moore that the dumpers would simply be moved to another location in the landfill and not be sold, and Moore agreed to allow their move.

Mr. Tindol later passed around a letter to each of the commissioners, but refused to allow the news media to look at the paper. Upon the insistence of a reporter, the paper was released, and it revealed that Solid Waste Enterprises was 4 months behind in its garbage bill; the bill was for a total of $374. Mr. Tindol asked the commission to wait until after January 15 (the delinquent date for bills) and then report back.

The bi-monthly meeting began at 1:00 a.m. with all commissioners present. Present were Commissioners Max J. Reeves, Don Smith, Gilmer Grant, Rex Boutwell and Jack Hornsby.

The meeting's first visitor was Mr. Ralph Stanford from the Alabama Energy Management Board. Mr. Stanford told the commission that it could receive up to $600 in federal funds to implement an energy savings plan. The fund is 50/50 matching, and Mr. Stanford told the commission in several methods to use the money. The commission asked for time to study the program before seeking the matching funds.

Mrs. Chantelle Whitman and Mrs. Zelma DeVane, from the Board of Registrars, requested the commission install telephones for the registrars' office.

"The state now requires a full-time registrar," stated Mrs. Whitman, "and we need a phone. In the past we haven't asked for much, but we do need a phone."

The commission suggested getting an extension from the Registrar's office, which is located next door to the office complex.

Mr. Jim Eason addressed the commission and asked the commission to close a dirt road in the Hollis Subdivision, located 5 miles north of Enterprise.

"If you'll turn the road back over to me, you won't have to worry about keeping it up," said Eason, "and I can stop the parkers and sparkers from using the road."

County Attorney Joe Sawyer told the commission that Mr. Eason would be the only landowner affected by the closing and the commission stated that if there are no objections, the road will be closed.

County Engineer Leslie Mullins reported that as soon as the commission adopted a resolution, approximately 93 miles of roads in the county would be striped. The commission entered into an agreement in April 1977 to have the stripes painted on the roads, but the actual work had been delayed. The project will cost $116,000 and will be 100% federally funded. The commission adopted a resolution designating the roads to be striped and the work should now begin within a couple of weeks.

Commissioner Rex Boutwell stated that since the commission received so much bad news, he wanted everyone to read a letter from Kingston Postmistress Libby Kimbro. The letter thanked the commission for keeping the roads on the mail routes in such good shape. The letter also stated the roads were passable even in bad weather.

Sheriff Neil Grantham addressed the commission and presented it with 6 requests. They were: (1) a need for additional deputies; (2) a need for new patrol cars; (3) the need for a cook at the jail; (4) the need to repair the dishwasher at the jail; (5) the need for a larger sink at the jail, and

(6) the need for work on electrical wiring at the jail. Grantham also invited the commission to check the wiring at the jail. After discussing the requests, the commission agreed to send out invitations to bid on a new patrol car; informed Grantham that 2 CETA workers would serve as cooks; agreed to try to find a sink through the Civil Defense; and agreed to get an electrician to check the wiring at the jail.

The commission also told Grantham it would ask Senator Wallace Miller and Representative Jimmy Holley to introduce legislation to help finance the Sheriff's Department in the delivering of court papers.

In other action at Monday's meeting the commission "received a letter from Senator Donald Stewart stating he would seek help in keeping the 'Off-System' road program funded."

"Approved an A-95 review for $71,641 in federal funds for the South Central Mental Health Board."

"Was invited to attend a meeting on January 22 at which the Extension Office would report on its yearly activities."

"Discussed changing the commission's meeting dates to the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month."

"Borrowed money to pay a $625.50 bill from James Moore for appraisal work."

"Received a letter from the State Highway Department agreeing to turn over old right-of-way (1.12 acres) on old US 231 to the county."

"Discussed meeting with tax officials before setting the tax millage."

Electric Rates In Elba To Increase Immediately

The citizens of Elba are faced with an increase in electric rates, following the regular monthly meeting of the Elba Water and Electric Board. The increase hits residential, commercial and industrial users.

This increase, anticipated for several months, hit Elba on the current power bill (electricity Elba citizens used last month) and resulted in a larger bill than the one billed last month.

The board unanimously approved the rate increase on a motion by Mayor Bob Folsom. Folsom included in his motion "...in view of the rate increase they (Alabama Electric or REA and Alabama Power Company) have put on us, we are forced to increase these rates."

The motion was seconded by Mike Russell who noted it was a very unpopular thing, but necessary to keep paying the bills and furnishing power to the people of Elba.

The rate increase approved by Folsom's motion changed the rate structure on all types of electric users and changed the method of billing to 4.4¢ per unit of electricity across the board for all residential power rather than the declining rate as power usage increased. The declining method has been used for many years nationwide but has come under fire from average users and environmentalists concerned over conserving power. Bills have been pending some time to outlaw the declining method of billing. Added to the 4.4¢ will be the 4¢ of Alabama sales tax and pay for adjustment charged by the power users.

Again this new method of charging will hit the big residential user hardest while some very small users may actually experience a drop in their power bill!

The fuel adjustment figure charged Elba utility users during the past several months is expected to drop drastically due to incorporating the 2 1/2¢ mill charge and the last 19¢ increase into the base rate, rather than calling it part of the fuel adjustment. In the future, the fuel adjustment figure, which to the utility was $918,000, according to information in the study by Stewart. Under the increased rates already in the report of his appearance before the Elba City Council, Jones noted that he didn't say the Grady Thomases had stated to him that they had permission from the City Council prior to the 1971 zoning Ordinance to place two trailers on the Smith Avenue property.

That statement was made by City Clerk Jack Prescott, who did state at the meeting he had been told this. This newspaper regrets the error and any hardships it may have caused anyone.

BRAINSTORMS

WITH FERRIN COX

Governor For James will take office next Monday, and already he is trying to follow through on his promise for a new constitution. One of the things he is supporting is a recall provision for elected officials. We agree this is needed; however, it needs to be hard enough to get done that an elected official could do his legal responsibilities without fear of being thrown out of office because it was not a popular idea at the time. In other words, make us dissatisfied voters have to work hard to throw out the rascals, but do make provisions for such action.

The students from Iran are getting braver with their protest in the good old USA. Apparently they nor the Federal government got shook up when I suggested sending them back to Iran! Still, it is the best thing to do... if we do editor goes to your house and starts tearing up things, you are going to send me home - pronto.

Some folks are getting out in this cold wind and catching fish, but it ain't me. Fortunately for this writer, work has piled up and I don't have time to fish. Probably, if it wasn't for that fact, you could see me more cold fisherman. Now deer hunters are something else... I decided years ago that they marched to a different drummer than this editor and promptly found me another band to join. Therefore when I see them out in the cold, it is easy to justify their naive actions.

We have a little more information concerning the front page report last week of Mayor Folsom saying he and/or his wife had received some funds from the fire department during the last two years. We understand the fire department has been told it was legal for Mrs. Folsom to serve as Secretary-Treasurer of the department. As far as we know, this is true, and the firemen can pay her for this. However, it must be their personal funds, and not by adding a fireman to the fire report or by using tax deductible donations. The very complete minutes of the department indicate the fire chief checked on Folsom - being paid even before he took office as Mayor, and reported to him and other members that it was against the law. However, several weeks later the members voted to pay Mrs. Folsom under the assumption this was legal. To get this payment for Mrs. Folsom, Folsom was added to the number of firemen attending a fire and the city issued one check for the total amount. This whole matter came out last week just prior to a council meeting when the new secretary turned in the report and gave two figures - one for all firemen except Folsom, and the other figure noting how many Mrs. Folsom attended. This offended Mayor Folsom, and he accused the members of the department of singling him out. They explained they were doing it in an effort to do what was right and not punish him. Now the procedure will be for the names of all twenty firemen to be listed, and the number of fires each attended. The firemen hope this will get them out of any politics and avoid singling out any member of the department. "The decision of who gets paid will then be made by the elected city officials," said Fire Chief Lloyd Driggers, after the firemen unanimously approved the change in procedure. We salute their decision and their continued dedication to the community.

We understand V. J. Elmore's has closed its doors. Here we are losing a retail store that has been here many years and one that survived a mass closing by the company several years ago. However, this points out our opinion that unless we are pushing forward, then we are sliding backward. We need to encourage people to live in Elba, shop in Elba, and locate their business in Elba, and spend less time talking about "all those people in Elba."

Ye old editor went to church twice in one day recently. The look on the face of the pastor was the same as that of the wife who received a dozen red roses from her husband one day when it wasn't birthday, anniversary or anything. She immediately wanted to know what he had done that he was trying to make up for all of a sudden. The preacher didn't say a much but the look was there. Well, I am just trying to make up some extra points while the weather is cold and wet. Then when the weather is warm and dry I can "borrow" to even it all out.

The meeting was held a very special significance in that the club was celebrating its 10th anniversary. All former members through the past 10 years were invited to attend the meeting and enjoy the celebration with the current membership.

Also, an invitation was extended to the New Era Study Club which was established in 1972 through the efforts of the Three Seasons Study Club.

During a social period the members and their guests enjoyed delicious refreshments served by hostesses for the evening. Mrs. Henrietta Grimes, Mrs. Linda Smith and Mrs. Jean Helms.

The meeting was then called to order by Club President, Mrs. Cathy Smith who called on Mrs. Betsy Harrison to present the program for the evening.

Mrs. Harrison gave a very interesting and enjoyable history of the Three Seasons Study Club. Everyone enjoyed hearing and remembering past club activities.

After the program was concluded the guests departed and a short business session was held. The meeting was then adjourned.

Dear Ferrin:

I certainly could not begin a New Year without at least trying to thank you and all the other wonderful people who responded so willingly and generously in a making 1978 a year to remember for the Elba Nursing Home.

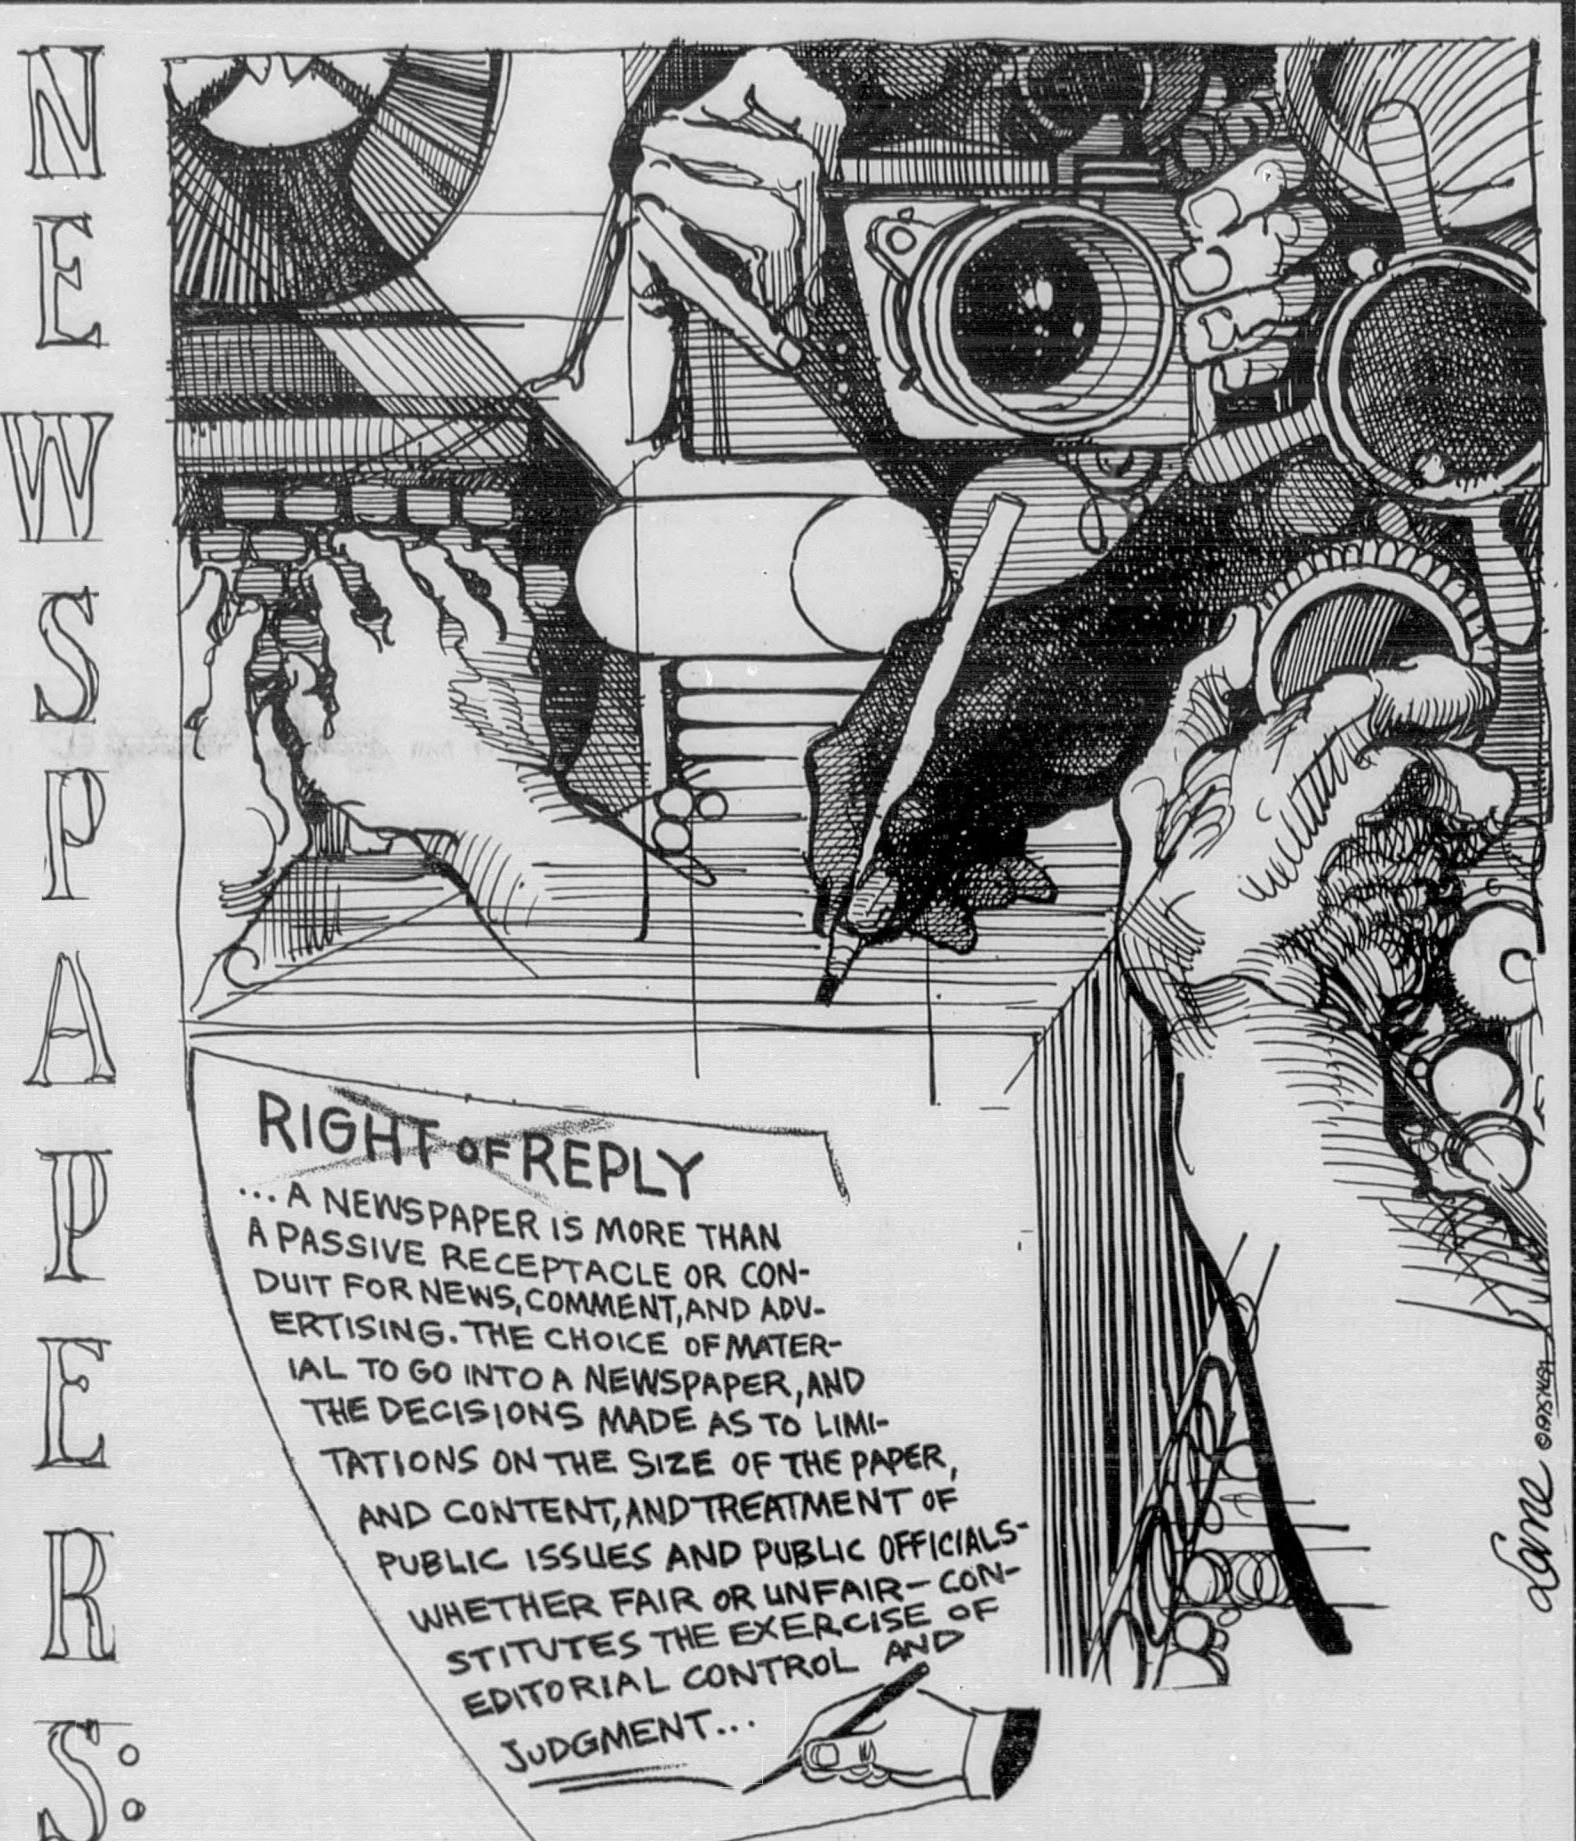

It would be hard to name each club, church group or individual who went all the way to bring happiness to 47 lovely residents at the nursing home for fear of leaving some one out. Everyone excelled in their endeavors in making our Christmas the best one yet, and we are truly grateful that each one found time in a busy schedule to bring some cheer our way. We are indeed blessed to live around such wonderful people who care and are willing to share.

The residents and staff join me in wishing everyone best wishes for a most prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,
Elba Nursing Home

FOR EVERYTHING A TIME

In the third chapter of Ecclesiastes, the writer says that there is a time and a circumstance for everything. Some have seen in this lovely book of the Bible nothing but the reflections of a pessimist who had grown old and bitter because of his experiences. To no, however, the life is the revelation of a man who has tasted of life in all its varying moods and has come to grips with this reality. One is indeed foolish to try and create a life-style in which there is no disappointment or sorrow, or sickness or despair. It is equally foolish to imagine a totally dark world in which there is not joy or laughter or happiness. The reality is that life is a mixture of all the elements of human experience, and can only be understood against the backdrop of its entirety. It seems to me that this is what Christianity is all about - it is the key to unraveling the mystery of sorrow mixed with joy and despair.

And so, today there is a time and place for every experience. There is not a question of whether there will be "hard times," but a question of how they are viewed.

the unending love of a heavenly

Father, life becomes a series of experiences that are designed to lift the human spirit toward eternity. In such a view, the believer is not freed from the necessities of suffering and sorrow, but he is equipped to view these hardships as passing events not to be compared with the eternal joy to be found in the Lord Jesus. The Christian is not set free from the debilitating experiences of life, but he is liberated from the permanent consequences.

And so, today there is a time and place for every experience. There is not a question of whether there will be "hard times," but a question of how they are viewed.

Beta Club Has

Christmas Party

On December 22, 1978, the Beta Club of Zion Chapel High School held a Christmas party for a group of children in the lower elementary grades. These children were given toys, surprises, and refreshments. Each Beta Club member was designated to be a big brother or sister to a child, to help him collect his goodies and get on the right bus to go home after the party.

The Beta Club members are to be praised for their help in doing part of Santa's work. These juniors and seniors worked for four months selling candy to finance this project. The club sponsor, Mrs. Mary Herbert, also contributed much of her time and efforts to make this a successful party.

American History Class Completes Projects

The one word probably most hated by students is PROJECT! It became even more hated when projects were assigned to the first period American History class. They were to write a ballad or a narrative poem and construct a crossword puzzle. Their subject matter was the Civil War and Reconstruction. Below is one of the finished projects written by Kim Levert.

Brother Against Brother

There was in 1861
A war that had just begun.
It was all about slavery they say
Though no one seems to know to this day.
The North had the industry and the people on its side
But the South had great leaders and a whole lot of pride.

Thoughts After Christmas

Christmas bells rang out loud,
They sang joy, love and care.
The magic of the yule tide season
Sprang throughout the air.

Happiness bounced across the room
All the family was there.
The day after Christmas we packed the decorations up
So they would be ready next year.

Views From THE PRESSBOX

With Ricky Mulnar, Sports Editor

The Elba Tigers won their first game of the season last week and may be the local cagers are finally ready to turn things around. Elba's players hustled throughout the game (as they always do), and when the score got close, they just kept running and pulled away for the win. A lot of people have asked me what kind of coach we've got. Well, I think we've got the top young coach in the state, and I honestly think that in a couple of years Elba will be a basketball power!

Coach Kirkland has learned a lot during the early part of the season, and combined with his knowledge of the game, he has developed into an outstanding coach. His team hustles all the time, and Coach Kirkland has managed to get everything possible out of his players. It's tough taking over when a team loses four starters, but Kirkland has done a good job. I guarantee you the best is yet to come.

Alabama claimed the national title last week in every poll but one, and Southern Cal can complain all they want cause Bama is #1. I'll admit the Trojans had a good team; but if the Tide wasn't first, I think it should have gone to Oklahoma.

I didn't comment on the firing of Woody Hayes last week, but I think the man finally got to the point where his emotions could not be controlled. When a coach loses self-discipline, it's time to step down. It is a shame that Hayes will be remembered more for his actions in the Gator Bowl than for his many coaching accomplishments.

The Clipper's "Dulish Prep Poll" returns this week, and as you will see, there have been a few changes in the south's "Top 5" teams in each class. Here goes.....

2. Enterprise
3. Central, of Phenix City

The Men's Basketball League has started, and everything is going smooth. Recreation Director Dennis Smith will get the boys' league started next week, and then it's time to start laying plans for softball. You know, with our new recreation director we do have a year around program.

Elba Tigers Claim First Victory - Dump Zion Chapel 61-54

The Elba Tigers returned to action last week and opened the new year with an exciting 61-54 upset win over the highly-rated Zion Chapel Rebels.

Daleville To Pose Big Problem For Tigers

To say the Daleville Warhawks will pose a "big" problem for the Elba Tigers in tonight's (Thursday) clash would be an understatement! The Warhawks own a record of 10 wins and 3 losses and have the biggest team in this part of the state.

"Daleville is without a doubt the biggest team we'll play," said Elba's Coach Jerry Kirkland in a recent telephone interview. "Their center is 6-6 and they have two forwards that are 6-6 and 6-5, not to mention a 6-3 guard."

Daleville tries to intimidate you on the boards," added Kirkland, "and they like to block shots. They have outstanding players and they've beaten some pretty good teams. If they beat us, they'll beat us on the boards."

"We know they're going to be tough," continued Kirkland, "and this is a big game for us. It's a conference game and we need to pick-up a win in the SAC before next week's tourney. For us to win, we'll have to screen out and rebound with'em. We can't let them get 2 or 3 shots every trip down the court. We have to play good defense to win."

The Tigers chalked-up their first win last week by upsetting Zion Chapel, and Coach Kirkland feels his team may finally be coming around. "We're still not playing up to our capabilities," said Coach Kirkland, "but we're playing pretty good ball. We still need to work on some things, but the boys are getting experience and are learning things every game. Perry tonight's action starts at 6:00 with the B game, while the varsity game will follow at 7:15.

Fuller has begun to take charge and is now doing a good job of leading the team on the court. Russ Wood is coming around and is scoring a lot of points and really battling on the boards. Don Horstead is beginning to find his shooting touch and he is really doing a good job rebounding. Alan King is playing good defense, while Carl Hamm has become our most consistent player. Carl gets his points every game and is doing a good job."

The Elba fast-break began to click in the fourth quarter and Elba moved into a 5-point lead midway through the stanza. The Rebels had a chance to close the gap late in the game, but they missed two free-throws in a crucial span and Elba held on for win number one.

Elba was led in scoring by Carl Hamm and Russ Wood with 18-points each, while Perry Fuller added 11-points. Steve Downing poured in 28-points to lead Zion Chapel.

The leading rebounders for Elba were Russ Wood - 14, Don Horstead - 12 and Alan King - 10.

The Brantley Bulldogs claimed their first win of the season last week by claiming a narrow 62-67 win over the Ft. Deposit Red Devils.

The win left Brantley with a 1-3 record, while the loss dropped Ft. Deposit's slate to 3-2.

The two rivals battled on even terms for much of the game, with neither team being able to grab more than a 6 point lead. The Bulldogs moved ahead in the final stanza and held on for their big win.

Po Boy Bass Club Holds Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Po-boy Bass Club was held on January 4 at the Big R Restaurant. Awards were given for the December tournament which was held at Lake Eufrasia. Ram King was the winner since he had caught his limit by mid-morning on the tournament day. Ram weighed in 10 fish with a total weight of 19 pounds and 10 ounces. Jerry Johnson placed second and Mike Farris finished third. Mike Farris also took honors for the Top Bassman during the second quarter of the fishing season.

The club elected to fish the January tournament at Smoke-house Lake near Bruce, FL on the fourteenth. As one half of the fishing season is now complete there is a close race for the Top Bassman of the year. Mike Farris continues to lead with 45 points, Jerry Johnson is second with 43 points, while Ram King and Scottie Weeks are third and fourth with 39 and 32 points, respectively.

The fishermen of the Po-boy Bass Club have a great time going on fishing trips and competing in tournaments. Anyone wishing to join the fun should contact any club member for details.

FISHIN' TIPS

from...Tom Mann

The all-time best bass lure is, undoubtedly, the plastic worm. In all the professional tournaments, they've used it and won. A bunch of plastic worms has caught well over three-fourths of the bass. Yet, a lot of fishermen say they can't catch bass on it. Well, I've talked to thousands of fishermen in seminars, banquets, around affairs, and clinics around this nation and I fed 1 hookworm to each of them. WHEN TO SET THE HOOK is simple. You do it the instant you feel a tug on the line, or feel any difference in your line such as tension. Set it on the line, and later can be too late. Never, and I mean never, never, let a bass run with a plastic worm. This could lose you the biggest bass of your lifetime.

Doug Hudson and Jerry Parker caught this mess of bass in a private pond on Mack's worms. The biggest fish weighed 7-pounds. Picture by The Elba Bait Shop.

Troy Trojans Blast Tigers 101-60

The Elba Tigers took it on the chin last Friday night when they fell to the power-ful Troy Trojans 101-60 in Elba.

The loss dropped Elba's slate to 1-4, while the win upped Troy's record to 7-5.

The visiting Trojans came out "red-hot" in the opening stanza and all but settled the outcome by pulling into a 30-13 lead. Troy, led by 6-5 Darryl Fayson, continued to dominate play in the second quarter and at halftime had pulled into a 50-23 advantage.

Elba's offense began to come to life in the third period, but Troy never so slowed down and increased its lead to 74-40. The final stanza was Elba's most productive of the evening as the Tigers poured in 30-points, but the visiting Trojans countered with 27 to Troy 17 22 13 9 - 61

AAM To Meet Tonight At Farm Center

There will be a meeting of the Coffee County American Agricultural Movement (AAM) tonight (Thursday), January 11, 7 o'clock at the New Brockton Farm Center.

Leaders say this is a very important meeting for peanut farmers, and that the trip to Washington to ask for help on the 1979 peanut program will be discussed.

Those Coffee County farmers wanting to be represented in Washington on February 4 are asked to be sure to attend.

Ed Cole brought a turnip into the CLIPPER office that weighed a "little over five pounds," and measured 23-1/2 inches around.

Ed said he "had fed five people off the top," and was "going to feed five more" from the bottom, the root.

INSURANCE - I hope the time will come when Coffee County farmers and livestock producers will approach every year with greater optimism. Along with this optimism, Coffee County farmers need to bring in a precision into their farm planning and implementation. As a group, we are not using the full technology which is available.

For example, we still have growers who do a poor job of land preparation, of weed and grass control, of disease control, and of pest control. As I have said many times, we need to use the technology available to help in crop and livestock production.

OPPORTUNITIES - As we begin 1979, I believe Coffee County farmers have the greatest opportunity they have had in over 100 years to improve their economic and standard of life. I am fully aware of the PUBLIC need for food and fiber. I am also just as fully aware of the opportunities which we have for producing it.

TWO MEETINGS - Speaking of our February 1 meeting, we are doing something different this year. We are having two identical meetings the same day. One will begin at 9:30 a.m. with a breakfast at noon and will conclude about 1:45 p.m. The second meeting, that day, will have exactly the same participants but will begin at 6:00 p.m. with a barbecue and conclude about 9:00 p.m.

NEW STAFF MEMBER - Jack Tatum, Jr. of Opelika, Alabama, joins the Extension staff today as Assistant County Agent - 4-H. He will be devoting all his time to 4-H Club work. Tatum is a December graduate of Auburn University majoring in Agricultural Science. He will be responsible for conducting 4-H Club meetings and activities throughout the county working with Mrs. Sandra Coffey and other Extension staff members.

Tri-States Swine Sale Postponed

The all-breed hog sale, originally scheduled for March 19, 1979 at the Houston County Farm Center in Dothan, has been postponed pending the fixing of a new date, a spokesman for the Tri-States Swine Breeders Association, Inc., the sponsoring organization, announced today.

"We are changing the date, as we are having a conflict with a previously scheduled sale," said George E. Trivette, Jr., secretary of the association.

"For the past five years Tri-States Swine Breeders Association, Inc. has been having its sale of Duroc and Yorkshires on this date, and it is not our policy to conflict with recognized breeders in the area. At his last sale, Mr. McDaniel had buyers from seven states in addition to those that I have mentioned. We need to take full advantage of other opportunities. We haven't even approached our potential for agricultural production and profits in Coffee County."

GROWERS' MEETINGS - We have a number of important meetings coming up in the new year. Same as last year. On January 23 Dr. Ben Hagler will discuss probable pecan production in the Community Room at the Farm Center. If you are interested in pecans, don't miss it.

On January 24 at 7:00 p.m. Mr. Perry Smith, our commercial horticulture specialist at Auburn, will talk about opportunities in growing vegetables for sale. We have a number of growers in Coffee County who are interested in this.

On February 1 we will have our annual Farm Day meeting featuring peanut, corn and soybean production. Specialists will be helping in this meeting. What about you? These meetings in the calendar and come to the ones you think will help you.

COMMERCIAL HORTICULTURE - Brenda Allen, our new state horticulture specialist, is looking forward to the commercial horticulture meeting on Tuesday night, January 23 here at the Farm Center. This meeting is set up for those individuals in the county who are interested in growing vegetables for sale. This could be a small garden or one wishing to plant several acres in truck crops.

DEATHS - John Marvin Jernigan - Mr. John Marvin Jernigan, age 85, of Kingston, died January 8, 1979 in Opelika, Alabama. He was a graduate of Auburn University majoring in Agricultural Science. COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PUBLIC HEARING FOR CITY OF ELBA

Elba will hold a public meeting at 10:00 a.m. on January 24, 1979 and at 4:00 p.m. on January 26, 1979. The purpose of this public meeting is to solicit the views and proposals of Elba's citizens about the important needs and problems of the community. These ideas and opinions will be used by the local officials to prepare a pre-application for a "Small Cities" Community Development Block Grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). They will also be used to prepare an application for the final year of Elba's Hold Harmless Program. Elba will be competing for Community Development funds with other cities in Alabama which are under $50,000. There is a total amount of $15.27 million available in the State. Elba's program cannot exceed $50,000, and include activities such as land acquisition, clearance, relocation, development of housing facilities, rehabilitation of housing, code enforcement, development of an industrial park and historic preservation activities. (If town has had CD before, please describe here the project and how well it is progressing.)

Elba is requesting $16,000 for its Hold Harmless Program. The application is due February 10, 1979.

Elba's CD program will be scored by HUD as to how well it solves identified problems. The pre-application is due on February 19; HUD will issue invitations for a full application about the end of April. Not every pre-application will be funded, as more pre-applications will be submitted than there are funds available.

It is important that all citizens of Elba attend one of these public meetings. In addition to these meetings, citizens will be given the opportunity throughout the pre-application process to make written comments and suggestions on community problems, needs, and projects.

Fob James Inauguration Marks "New Beginning" In Alabama Politics

When Fob James was sworn in as the Governor of Alabama on Monday, January 15, it marked a "new beginning" in politics for the state, and it also marked the end of the Wallace era.

Governor James, the state's 51st governor, was sworn in Monday following a gala inaugural parade which included 9,000 participants, and was viewed by over 100,000 spectators.

The theme of Gov. James' campaign was "new beginning," and the theme was carried on as a bevy of speakers addressed the crowd.

During Gov. James' address, he stated, "I am not one bit in awe of government at any level, nor the traditions of public office." Continuing, James also referred back to another campaign slogan, and said, "Our children cannot seek their own destinies without literacy. Our children cannot be free without literacy. Our children must have literacy, and the grace of God, we shall have literacy."

James ended his speech by saying, "It is time we have a new beginning. It is time I pledge to you my best to this end. I ask for your prayers. Thank you - God bless you."

The end of the "Wallace Era" after nearly two decades, marks a new brand of politics in the state, and a man named Fob will lead the way.

Elba police, rescue squad members and volunteers are removing C. F. Calhoun from his overturned car last Friday morning at about 8:30.

Calhoun was apparently returning to his home and had a heart attack. His car left the highway just across from the Elementary School.

He was pronounced dead at the Elba General Hospital.

Mayor's Fire Call Pay Dominates City Council Meeting Tuesday Night

The pay Mayor Bob Folsom and of his wife have received from the fire department while Folsom was mayor caused a heated discussion at the Elba City Council meeting Tuesday night. The argument quieted off with the council voting 4-1 to approve a motion that Folsom pay back any fire department money immediately if he owed it, and a decision by the council to get an unbiased legal opinion on the matter.

Officers of the fire department were present at the meeting to ask again for the old police car to use as a fireman's car and request help in securing a fire station large enough to house all four trucks. As they finished this discussion, Councilman Jimmy Wier stated he kept hearing there was some discrepancy in the fire department, concerning money paid to Folsom by his wife.

Folsom said, "I have not taken anything wrongly, and don't intend to pay anything back." Folsom then instructed the City Clerk to strike any reference to the matter from the minutes because it was not on the agenda, and it would take a majority vote of the council to discuss it.

A motion to discuss the matter was made by Wier and quickly seconded by Councilman John W. Sharpless. This motion passed, and the discussion continued.

Councilman Clio Hawkins said he would make some facts. "Did you attend fires and get paid for fires?" Folsom answered, "Not now... they elected my wife and she was elected every time I went to a fire."

Sharpless asked if it were possible for the council to see all the fire department records, and Marvin Melvin (who replaced Folsom as Secretary-Treasurer in December) said he could only bring the check stubs, as the canceled checks had not been turned over to him.

Folsom then said he had found the canceled checks and some fire reports the night before and would give them to Melvin the next day. It was agreed that Melvin would bring all records he had to the next meeting, and along with Fire Chief Lloyd Driggers, assist them in any way possible.

City Clerk Jack Prescott explained that he didn't know what firemen responded to fires, as he was only given a list of the fires and a number of firemen attending each one. Chief Driggers pointed out that this had been recently changed, and now the City would get the individual names.

Folsom again explained to a questioning councilman, "She got paid for fires I attended." Folsom said it wasn't against the law... he had checked it with the League of Municipalities, city attorney, Attorney-General Bill Baxley, former Attorney General and Governor, John Patterson, and others.

Wier then made the motion, "If the mayor owes any fire department money to the city, he reimburses it tonight." The motion was seconded by Sharpless, and their votes were joined by those of Hawkins and Councilman Mike Russell.

Councilman D. M. English voted "no," saying it should have been on the agenda for the next meeting, and also this was the same as Mike Russell voting with the other councilmen to pay bills for materials purchased from Russell Cash and Carry, owned then by Councilman Russell's father. The purchases from the building supply stopped on January 1st, at Councilman Russell's request, when he announced he and his wife were joining the business. English said he didn't remember the council voting in their first meeting to allow a majority to bring up things not on the agenda, nor did he remember discussion on the matter of the city buying a fire station from Russell Cash & Carry. Councilman Sharpless read an opinion from the League of Municipalities bulletin concerning a similar situation, and it was ruled legal.

Folsom said he been invited to take a leave of absence from the fire department, but would continue to fight fires free - "that is what I think of my fellow man. I have been a fireman since 1954, and am good at it."

When asked why his wife was elected bookkeeper, when previously the secretary-treasurer had done the work, Folsom said, "When I found out it was legal to pay her for fires I attended."

One councilman laughingly said that now since Marvin Melvin was doing all the work, maybe he should be paid an extra $6.50 every time the mayor attends a fire.

The council was notified of a class action law suit filed against 132 hospitals, including the Elba General Hospital, both Enterprise hospitals, Troy, Laverne and Dothan hospitals. The suit was filed by Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance and three individuals. It charges the hospitals overcharged.

Folsom said this would probably cause the program to be moved from Elba. He also said the Recreation program had three from the CETA workers that sat around the Rec Center and played dominoes all day. The councilmen reminded Folsom of his prior statements of his ability to manage people, and they expected him to get with the recreation director and see that this was stopped.

Folsom also proposed buying some pin ball machines for the Rec Center "to get the kids out of the Jr. Food Store." The council took no action on this matter.

Coffee County Sheriff C. F. "Neil" Grantham was sworn in last week to serve his second term as Sheriff. Sheriff Grantham was sworn in by Supernumerary Circuit Judge Eris Paul.
